Peace pipe passing me by Waving as I'm crossing the street like Peace, man, but you know better The circle unravels

The coward you cross
Don't know what's worse
Don't think it's working
The coward you cross
Don't know what's worse
Don't think it's working

Don't think it's worth it Don't think it's worth it

Open minds, open fights
Forgot that forgiving is the hard part
And each hand, ignore each other
Can't stop the suffering

The coward you cross
Don't know what's worse
Don't think it's working
The coward you cross
Don't know what's worse
Don't think it's worth it

Don't think it's worth it Don't think it's worth it

The coward you cross
Don't know what's worse
Don't think it's working
The coward you cross
Don't know what's worse
Don't think it's worth it

Don't think it's worth it
Don't think it's worth it
