Like Me Like That

Bear Hands

It's hard work watching my figure
Trying out something new
Please don't take my picture
I'm only halfway through
Passed out in Chicago
Wake up with no shoes
Piece it all together, anyone would conclude
I'm only halfway through
(Here's the thing)

I think you like me like that
I think you like me like that
Like that, like that
I think you like me like that
Emotional wreck, I told you I can't
I think you like me like that
Like that, like that, like that

Come home and you're acting
Surprised I'm back so soon
I would gladly explain away all the mistakes
Can you wait? I'm only halfway through
The mission snake bitten (unlucky)
The check is late again (unlucky)
Don't want to wait for no second before it drop
Don't want the blame to follow me
I'll meet you halfway

I think you like me like that
I think you like me like that

Like that, like that
I think you like me like that
Emotional wreck, I told you I can't
I think you like me like that
Like that, like that

You see a mess, but that's progress
You see a mess, but I promise
We'll make the best of whatever's left over
I'm only halfway (I'm only halfway through)
You see a mess, but that's progress
You see a mess, but I promise
We'll make the best of whatever's left over
You see a mess

I think you like me like that
Like that, like that, like that
Like that, like that, like that
I think you like me like that
Like that, like that, like that
Like that, like that, like that
I think you like me like that
Like that, like that, like that
Like that, like that, like that
I think you like me like that
Like that, like that, like that

Like that, like
