

You

Bear's Den

I don't know if I've ever seen you fail
While I flounder, I flail
I fumble and fall
And you can do it all

Sometimes I feel myself falling behind
I can't keep up with your stride
I stagger and stall
Falling to the floor

I'm sorry I'm quiet
I'm feeling lost
I can't help but watch you
I am in awe
At how you can handle
Everything that life throws at you

I don't know how you do it
How you make it all look so easy
I don't how you do it
I wanna be more like you

When I look at you
It's like you don't need to prove yourself
To anyone
You live in the moment
That I'm frightened of

I don't how to let the little things go
Not to have control
I think you're brave
In ways you'll never know

I'm sorry I'm quiet
I'm feeling lost
I can't help but watch you
I am in awe
At how you can handle
Everything that life throws at you

I don't know how you do it
How you make it all look so easy
I don't how you do it
I wanna be more like you

I'm sorry I'm quiet
I'm feeling lost
I can't help but watch you
I am in awe
At how you can handle
Everything that life throws at you

I don't know how you do it
How you make it all look so easy
