I Feel It All

Bearings

Turn the lights down, this is a heavy feeling
Brand new yet so profound, I feel you pulling me in Feel a soft breeze under a starry ceiling
I think I'm falling for you
Should I be falling for you?

You say you miss me and you wish you could've met my dad
I wish you didn't but it's shit like that just makes me sad
Take my heart, now take my money, take my photograph
Write your name beside the date before it comes to pass

All I know is that I'm seeing what I wanna believe
And all I got is something better than I ever wanted

I feel it all
As it comes pourin' in
Swimmin' in your soul
Swear I could drown in it
And I know that it seems so hard
But I told you from the start
I feel it all
As it comes pourin' in
I think I'm losing it

All of the motions that we go through
From the emotions that I know you kept here
You say it's different but it's not true
It's so confusing but it's never been so clear

Inside a home with such a poor foundation
Collect your calls 'cause I'm just busy getting wasted
A different city on the floor in the basement
Long distance dreaming, don't remember how you tasted

All I know is that I'm seeing what I wanna believe
And all I got is something better now

I feel it all
As it comes pourin' in
Swimmin' in your soul
Swear I could drown in it
And I know that it seems so hard
But I told you from the start
I feel it all
As it comes pourin' in
I think I'm losing it

I feel it all
As it comes pourin' in
Swimmin' in your soul
Swear I could drown in it
And I know that it seems so hard
But I told you from the start
I feel it all
As it comes pourin' in
I think I'm losing it
