

Lovely Lovely

Bearings

I wanna see all there is to see
And live my life in a steady dream
I wanna get caught up in the real world
And feel like a goddamn anomaly

I wanna get fucked up in the stars
With pretty girls and expensive cars
Is this who you are, is this who I'll be
Can we get high and float downstream
Oh, float downstream
Ah yeah

Lovely Lovely do you love me?
I find it hard to believe (Ahhhhhhhhh)
Lovely Lovely do you love me?
Life ain't nothing but a dream, so shine your love down on me

Ya caught me standing in the rain now
And when it's gone I can barely see
Remnants of something from a past life
There's never anything good on TV
And I was running my mouth like someone who was actin
And I can't remember I was on about what was it were you askin?

And I said

Lovely Lovely do you love me?
I find it hard to believe (Ahhhhhhhhh)
Lovely Lovely do you love me?
Life ain't nothing but a dream, so shine your love down on me
