

Over Now

Bearings

We were running in a straight line
And I was so damn tired I forgot how to break
And I still think about you most nights
You are the thing that I like
You are the weak to my knees

I need to see your shadow in a different light
Cause mine just burnt out

I think that you think you found me out
But I don't think you'd even wanna know
Our love was good love but didn't grow
I hope that you know it's over now

Gotta keep your mind on what you want
Gotta get that heart just what it needs
Just cause you're running in a straight line
Doesn't mean you'll get where you need to be
