

Push Ups (Two)

Bears In Trees

I'll do 20, 000 pushups every morning
I'll walk with books on my head
I'll learn the correct cutlery to use
I won't sleep I'll read dictionaries instead
I will consume every piece of art
Watch every film the day they come out
I will read every poem and book ever written
And know exactly what they're about
I will down whole bottles of cod liver oil
Take all of my meds on time
I will use the longest word in the world in a song
And I will make it rhyme
I will learn to ride my bike with no handlebars
I will get home every night
And not get hit by cars
I will make my bed every morning
I will clean the house every night
I will become so much more than what I am and I'll be alright
I will be alright
