

ATTN.

Beartooth

Been on the run
I got strong
I put the work in all year long
I found inner peace
I found self-belief
I even fell fell fell in love

So why wait
Let's go
We know time ain't gonna move slow
If you're watching me
If you're listening
I gotta let let let you know

That I need it right now I need it right now I need it I need it right now

I need your attention
I need it right now I need it I need it right now
I need your attention
I need it right now I need it I need it right now

I'll give you my everything I promise
Just turn my world around
I need your attention
I need it right now I need it I need it right now

Been growing up
I moved on
I'm putting new chords in my songs
A new way I speak
A new lyric sheet for you to sing sing sing along

So why wish?
Why stall?
There's no time for thinking so small
If you're watching me
If you're listening I gotta risk risk risk it all

'Cause I need it right now I need it right now I need it I need it right now

I need your attention
I need it right now I need it I need it right now
I need your attention
I need it right now I need it I need it right now

I'll give you my everything I promise
Just turn my world around
I need your attention
I need it right now I need it I need it right now

Well this is it
My last shot
To show you everything I got
I won't wait it out
I won't live with doubt
I won't be someone I'm not

So come join me at the top
Come join me at the top

I need your attention
I need it right now I need it I need it right now
I need your attention

I'll give you my everything I promise
