

Permanently Sealed

Beartooth

Stuck in the silence, I don't know what's real
All my letters stay permanently sealed

Cutting every corner I can manage to find
'Cause my dreams have started coming true
Address every single journey to the back of my mind
In a way that's only helping you

And now you've won
You've overcome
Now you've won
You've overcome

I never wanted to explain myself
Now I'm haunted and you all can tell
Stuck in the silence, I don't know what's real
All my letters stay permanently sealed

Watching people dancing with the dark and divine
The progression never finds resolve
Now this sonic interference is a way to remind me
Change is how the strong devolve

And now you've won
You've overcome
Now you've won
You've overcome

I never wanted to explain myself
Now I'm haunted and you all can tell
Stuck in the silence, I don't know what's real
All my letters stay permanently sealed

All my letters stay permanently sealed

And now you've won
You've overcome
Now you've won
You've overcome
And now you've won
You've overcome
Now you've won
You've overcome

I never wanted to explain myself
Now I'm haunted and you all can tell
Stuck in the silence, I don't know what's real
All my letters stay permanently sealed
