Skin

Beartooth

I've been sleeping on the floor of my closet again
Wishing hopelessness is something I might beat in the end
I've been burying it down in my system again
I'm so uncomfortable

'Cause safety isn't saving me
And I can't decide if I should keep it or just throw it away

I'm so uncomfortable with this skin I'm in (Skin I'm in)
The mirror's telling me that I'll never win (Never win)
It's so hard to know these days if anybody feels the same
I'd give anything, anything for some company, company

I've been hearing people say they don't have any pain
They've been finding every answer, it's just me that's insane
I've been battling it out with the demons within
I'm so uncomfortable

Give me a sign and give me some love
'Cause I can't decide if I should stay or just get up and run

I'm so uncomfortable with this skin I'm in (Skin I'm in)
The mirror's telling me that I'll never win (Never win)
It's so hard to know these days if anybody feels the same
I'd give anything, anything for some company, company

For some company
For some company, yeah

I've been worrying about what's been tied to my name
I'm just losing every moment when I try to explain
I've been burying it down in my system again
I'd give anything
I'd give anything

I'm so uncomfortable with this skin I'm in (Skin I'm in)
The mirror's telling me that I'll never win (Never win)
It's so hard to know these days if anybody feels the same
I'd give anything, anything (I'd give anything)
I'm so uncomfortable with this skin I'm in (Skin I'm in)
I'm so uncomfortable with this skin I'm in (Skin I'm in)
I'm so uncomfortable with this skin I'm in (Skin I'm in)
I'd give anything, anything for some company, company (Yeah)
