

Takeover

Beartooth

Time for you to face it, never gonna make it
Everything is shutting down
Blame it on the outcome, blame it on the system
Nothing is working out

No love, no fame
They won't ever know your name

No one here cares, what you're gonna say
You've already lost this anyway
Try to run your mouth
Try to play the game
You'll never stop the takeover that's happening

(No, no, no, no, no, no, no)
(You'll never stop the takeover that's happening)
(No, no, no, no, no, no, no)
(You'll never stop the takeover that's happening)

Looking for a free ride, looking for a handout
Everyone knows the truth
Tell me I'm a reject, tell me I'm a coward
Tell me I'm born to lose

No love, no fame
They won't ever know your name

No one here cares, what you're gonna say
You've already lost this anyway
Try to run your mouth
Try to play the game
You'll never stop the takeover that's happening

(No, no, no, no, no, no, no)
(You'll never stop the takeover that's happening)
(No, no, no, no, no, no, no)
(You'll never stop the takeover that's happening)
(That's happening, happening, happening, happening)

Looking for a bull fight
Underneath the spotlight
What are you gonna do
Could have been a contender
You should have surrendered
Now you're leaving black and blue
Set it off

No one here cares, what you're gonna say
You've already lost this anyway
Try to run your mouth
Try to play the game
You'll never stop the takeover that's happening

(No, no, no, no, no, no, no)
('Cause it's happening)
(No, no, no, no, no, no, no)
('Cause it's happening)

No one here cares, what you're gonna say
You've already lost this anyway
Try to run your mouth
Try to play the game
You'll never stop the takeover that's happening

You'll never stop the takeover that's happening
