Beast Coast

Everybody got problems, it's all about how you relate
My play will prosper, though, so I'm gon' handle the weight
The world's so toxic, hey, separate the real from the fake
Why wait for tomorrow though? 'Stead I'm goin' start with today

I've been to too many shows
Jaded 'cause I'm missin' paper for music, they losin', they quick to download
Normally I would just speak for myself, but this time I got lick from the woes
Word, this world losin' your soul
What is your ultimate goal? If you don't play you don't fold

Everybody got problems, it's all about how you relate
My play will prosper, though, so I'm gon' handle the weight
The world's so toxic, hey, separate the real from the fake
Why wait for tomorrow though? 'Stead I'm goin' start with today

And that's the way it goes, some problems can't get solved
And that's the way it goes, some problems can't get solved
And that's the way it goes, some problems can't get solved
And that's the way it goes, some problems can't get solved

Fuck all that fake shit niggas be posin'
I put in work while these niggas be yawnin'
You can rehearse but this shit is my aura
Shit that we totin' will break through your armor
Got to the corner and opened the parlor
All of these blessings that came from the harbor
Pull out the weapon and turn you into stardust
Know when we step in the drip is enormous, uh

Problems pilin' in my head, I need to get my mind right
Silent night, no Jesus Christ, I need to keep my life right
Get the bag and hold tight, cut no slack, it's on sight
Runnin' back and go snipe, bus' it back that's all night

I know, how it feels some time
Gotta' get a piece of mine, then we get a piece of mind
No way, no way, life is hard at time
You will find your lie, purpose gotta' shine
Some way, some way, is gonna' it get my way, my way
Better get the fuck out my face, fillin' my potential today
Yay-e-yay, yeah, yeah, yay-e-yay, yay
Yay-e-yay, yeah

I'm on my Brooklyn dancin', young boy like Luka Dončić
Big league, I'm up, I'm wildin'
P.E.; my bros, my partners
Stressed out, but still I promise, to hold y'all down regardless
Used to have too much problems, but I just grew beyond them

Take time when your mind is fragile
No key, but I'm keepin' the Patek
You can see if you reach and imagine
Inside can leave with a fashion
Free-fallin', I don't need no static

This song with an automatic
Wanna' go, but you just don't get it
No rehearsal, we just don't let it
Take time when your mind is fragile
No key, but I'm keepin' the Patek
You can see if you reach and imagine
Inside can leave with a fashion
Free-fallin', I don't need no static
This song with an automatic
Wanna' go, but you just don't get it
No rehearsal, we just don't let it

You know that I don't have no time
Vent 'bout the day but don't ask about mine
That's what I learned, y'all got some nerve
So y'all get curved, not my concern

And that's the way it goes, some problems can't get solved
And that's the way it goes, some problems can't get solved
And that's the way it goes, some problems can't get solved
And that's the way it goes, some problems can't get solved

Everybody got problems, it's all about how you relate
My play will prosper, though, so I'm gon' handle the weight
The world's so toxic, hey, separate the real from the fake
Why wait for tomorrow though? 'Stead I'm goin' start with today
