

Blade Runner

Beast In Black

Smog-choked sprawling metropolis
Towers of fire and high-tech infinities
Plunge into neon idolatry
Serve the machine, surrender your empathy, oh yeah
The power-mad control
Our lives below

Blade Runner, more than meets the eye
Blade Runner, will refuse to die
Walking on the knife's edge
Searching for a light
A killer of his own kind

In the womb of a brave new humanity
Paranoia-imbued reality
Behold the cat and the mouse, now the game begins
Drenched in death and no one truly wins, no, no
In friendless solitude
Worn and abused

Blade Runner, more than meets the eye
Blade Runner, will refuse to die
Walking on the knife's edge
Searching for a light
A killer of his own kind

Blade Runner, more than meets the eye
Blade Runner, will refuse to die
Walking on the knife's edge
Searching for a light
A killer of

Blade Runner, more than meets the eye
Blade Runner, will refuse to die
Walking on the knife's edge
Searching for a light
A killer of his own kind
