Square Wave in Unison

Beastie Boys

Made a noise invented a sound When Brian Wilson used it a hit was found If only I could have imagined The square waves running through his head

Square wave, people couldn't believe it Square wave, all the way to Carnegie Hall Square wave

One rod for pitch, electromagnetic fields Wired up sing sing, hung out with Einstein For all of his brilliant innovation Sent off to a Siberian Reservation
