

All About Me

Beatenberg

You know it's all about me
I cannot even explain
All the images in my brain
It's like pleasure but it's like pain
La la la la me
I drive myself insane
Looking into the window pane
I see my own face, so vain
You know it's all about me

I'm not an adventurer
Unless the map's a mirror
I always fall for myself
I fall into the river
I'm shrouded in mystery
Nobody understands me
Oh do you see what I see
Under the frangipane

You know it's all about me
I cannot even explain
All the images in my brain
It's like pleasure but it's like pain
La la la la me
I drive myself insane
Looking into the window pane
I see my own face, so vain
You know it's all about me

I had an afternoon nap
Then I had a panic attack
I changed my profile picture
Then later I changed it back
Driving down the avenue
The shadows are long and blue
On the edge of something new
In my BMW

You know it's all about me
I cannot even explain
All the images in my brain
It's like pleasure but it's like pain
La la la la me
I drive myself insane
Looking into the window pane
I see my own face, so vain
You know it's all about me

I'm a narcissist
I'm impressionist
I'm an imagist
I'm an egotist
I'm an idiot
I'm a perfectionist
