

Gold Mine

Beatenberg

One more dream before I wake up
One more moment of doubt
One more teaspoon of sugar
One less thing to worry about

To be a sheep
That was a lamb
Lying gently in their hands
When the shears are out
Angry young ram
And when they pull
To be the wool
Over the eyes of every fool
To be the warmth of everyone

It's been a long time
In the coal mine
In the gold mine
Ayaya
The deeper I dig
The less that I find
Let the crow fly
It's a good sign
Thank God every day of my life
Nobody knows
I'm a gold mine

Some questions
Have an answer
Others just have a sound
Some days
You can only go upwards
Some days
Send you underground

And in the dark
To be a spark
To be an illegible mark
To be the meaning of
'You only live once'
To be the rock
To be the rule
To be the fire on the fuel
To be the life of everyone

It's been a long time
In the coal mine
In the gold mine
Ayaya
The deeper I dig
The less that I find
What's a good sign
To the wrong mind?
Thank God every day of my life
Nobody knows
I'm a gold mine

Lost in the maize
Sun on your face
In search of grace
You need a lot of love
You need a knot of love
You need a pot of love