

Wheelbarrow

Beatenberg

I'm living the life
I got flowers
On my mind
O there's nothing I could want
That I don't already have
Now you show me
That's a lie

You're giving me the feeling
You wanna know me better
Maybe it's for the weekend
Or maybe it's forever
All you say is hello
It hit me like an arrow
I tell you: "Baby and come and ride
In my wheelbarrow"

In my wheelbarrow
In my wheelbarrow
In my wheelbarrow
Like an arrow

We were living our lives
Getting older
Getting by
Now I can't believe that I wasn't
Raging at the moon every night
For you to be mine

You're giving me the feeling
You wanna know me better
Maybe it's for the weekend
Or maybe it's forever
All you say is hello
It hit me like an arrow
I tell you: "Baby and come and ride
In my wheelbarrow"
