

Some People may run.
While others have fun.
Tryin' to grab what they can.
So I lie in the grass.
I had too much and too fast.
And the best of all times.
Waiting out the days to go by and waters run dry.

But I've made up my mind.
It's calling me call me anytime.
It's coming up each and every line.
Keep calling me call anytime.
Oh oh oh here is the song.
For those who never ever sit back and recover.
Here is the one for those who never shiver.
The cool cats I adore.

Some people wear gloves.
Carrying their portion of love.
Until death comes from above.
Now for dreams and for plans.
You try as hard as you land.

But I've made up my mind.
It's calling me call me anytime.
It's coming up each and every line.
Keep calling me call anytime.
Here is the song.
For those who never ever sit back and recover.
Here is the one for those who never shiver.
The cool cats I adore.
The cool cats I adore.
The cool cats I adore.
