

One Eye Is King

Beaver

From time to time
We take a turn unknown
When face to face with facts
The seed is sown
To undertake steps
& to draw a line

Another chapter closed
The curtain falls
On independency
answer the call

You take your turn
Play your part subconscious
You take your chances
To stand apart

Going by the rules
It is the hard way
To get to grips
To see the game we play

Temptations felt
Don't you restrain
But pay attention to Whatever pulls your strings
It's so easy
To win a narrow mind
One eye is king
If we are all blind
