

This Room

Beaver

I toss and turn
I push the sheets back
Soft pillow feels hard like rock
Dreaming constant paranoia
Soaking I wake up
In shock

Tonight I cannot stand to touch you have to push you of my knee sweat is pouring down my temples this bed ain't big enough for me shattered glass & burned out ashtrays

I try to slice
The air thick with smoke
I think I'm gonna choke
So I rise

Hit my head against the ceiling
This room ain't big enough
Do you know that feeling
The room ain't big enough

I gotta beat that feeling
I gotta take a load off

Feel like I'm exploding
The room ain't big enough
When I get that feeling
I gotta take a load off

I'm crashing through the ceiling
The room ain't big enough
When I get that feeling
I gotta take a load off
