

Both Night & Day

Bebe & Cece Winans

Feeling all alone
Cause every blue sky
Is covered with dark clouds
All your friends have gone
And the whole world is crashing in

But even when it's dark
I'm right by your side
Just reach out and touch me
My love will never part
Not in a million years

Doesn't matter the time, doesn't matter the place
I will be there both night & day
Doesn't matter the time, doesn't matter the place
I will be there both night & day
Both night & day, night & day
My love is there both night & day

Did someone break your heart
Right now you feel that
That's the way love goes
But love will never part
Not in a billion years
That's more than a million

I promise I will be
All that you need
And all that you long for
My heart will finally see
Life in a brand new way

I have what you're asking for
Peace of mind comes in knowing
You found what you're looking for Everything you wanted
Everything you needed

Oh call me
Cause I will be there both night & day
Doesn't matter the time, doesn't matter the place
I will be there both night & day
Both night & day, night & day
Love is there both night & day

Oh call me
Cause I will be there both night & day
Doesn't matter the time, doesn't matter the place
I will be there both night & day
Both night & day, night & day
Love is there both night & day
