

The Blood

Bebe & Cece Winans

Better call up my friends
'Cause I don't know what I'm-a do
Yo, BeBe, CeCe
I got a problem
I can't let it happen like this

I can't let 'em take and break me by the hour
I got what I need, I got the Blood and it's
The power, the power, the power

Power way back when y'all
And it's still as strong today
A cleanser from all wrong, y'all
And can remove deep stains away, yeah

Heard someone saying
Mine's a hopeless case
But then a friend
Told him of that substance
That could change if just embraced

Now I'm telling you
Some through the fire
And some go through the flood
But we all are overcomers
If we trust in the Blood
I'll trust in the Blood

Now some trust, yes, in silver
And others trust in gold
But tell me who will you trust in
When your riches have waxed cold

Some through the fire
And some go through the flood
But we all are overcomers
If we only trust in the Blood
(Said, if we trust in)
I'll trust

Thinking about the situation
A way out of the circumstances
What are you gonna do
Stop, here's the plan
Take the time and humbly
Beseech the Lord, for all of your needs
I guarantee He'll make a way
Trust the Blood, you got the faith
Doctor can't do it
The lawyer wants his pay
But the Blood is the power
Oh, yeah, that's why we pray
No matter what the problem is
You know that God is love
And when it's time to put your trust
I'll trust in the Blood

No matter what you're going through
Whatever you're going through
No matter, whatever
Just trust Him forever

I said, trust in the Blood
I said, trust in the Blood
No matter, whatever
Just trust Him forever

Some, yeah, through the fire
Through the heat and through the fire
(Some, through the flood)
He'll guide you, oh...
Don't worry about the rain
(All overcomers)
There's no need to worry
Oh, yes, we are
(Trust in the Blood)
That's if you trust in
(I'll trust, I'll trust)
Hey, hey, hey!
Ah, yeah!

Who you gonna trust, who you gonna
Who you gonna in
I'm talkin' to you
Yes, you, my brother
Put all your trust in man
You got the right choice
Who you gonna lean, who you gonna
Who you gonna lean on
You need somebody
Yes, you, my brother
I found a fine foundation
You got the right choice
Who you gonna call, who you gonna
Who you gonna call on
I'm talkin' to you
Yes, you, my brother
Oh, yeah
You got the right choice
Said some

(Some through the fire)
It's so good to be able to pick up the phone
(Some through the flood)
And call up a friend
(All overcomers)
You know, BeBe and CeCe
I'm glad you put me back in the right
(Trust in the Blood)
'Cause I was callin' all the wrong people
(I'll trust in the Blood)

(Some through the fire)
My employer couldn't help me
My doctor couldn't help me
(Some through the flood)
My lawyer couldn't help me
(All overcomers)
But the Blood, the Blood
(I'll trust in the Blood)

Aw, yeah, the Blood
I trust, I trust the Blood
(I'll trust in the Blood)
