

You

Bebe & Cece Winans

You ready?
Sing

To all those problems you're facing
We know there's a solution
There is an answer
The answer is You
Though we know this world that we live in
Is in a state of confusion
Still there is an answer
The answer is You

It breaks my heart to look at man
Lonely, hurting
I'm torn apart each time I see a child
Crying, hungry

Yes, there is an answer
Take some time, it's really not hard to find
So glad that I found it
He is the answer, hey

Let's love one another
Time to be, the friend that you should be
Share hope with each other
And love is the answer

To all those problems you're facing
We know there's a solution
There is an answer
The answer is You
Though we know this world that we live in
Is in a state of confusion
Still there is an answer
The answer is You

Now you may ask what our quest should be
Loving, caring
Well, it's because our Father gives freely
These things I'm saying

Oh, yes there is an answer
Take some time (hey), it's really not hard to find
So glad that I found it
He is the answer (hey)

Let's love one another
Time to be, the friend that you should be
Share hope with each other
Love is the answer
Play the keyboard

You and me, oh, you and me
I said sing

To all those problems you're facing

There is an answer
The answer is You
Though we know this world that we live in
Is in a state of confusion
Still there is an answer
The answer is You
