

What About It

Bebe Winans

What about me
Are you still the only one can set you free, yea
What about you
Do you still believe I love you cause I do, yea
Don't you ever think
For a moment I've changed
I will always care (forever the same)
Hold your head up there (don't you give in)
What about it, yea
In the end you're gonna win

Without a single love one can be found
Talk about it, talk about it
And the cares of this life has you down
Talk about it, talk about it
You can count on me to be your friend
Talk about it, talk about it
I'll be there, don't cry
In the end you're gonna win

Whatever it is
I'm the only one around can, make it right, yea
Whatever you need
You can call me anytime both day and night, yea
When your rain begins (just hold on tight)
Through the thick and thin (it's gonna be alright)
Hold your head up then (and don't you give in)
What about it, yea
In the end I'm gonna win

Without a single love one can be found
Talk about it, talk about it
And the cares of this life has you down
Talk about it, talk about it
You can count on me to be your friend
Talk about it, talk about it
I'll be there, don't cry
In the end you're gonna win

Without a single love one can be found
Talk about it, talk about it
And the cares of this life has you down
Talk about it, talk about it
You can count on me to be your friend
Talk about it, talk about it
I'll be there, don't cry

Without a single love
Talk about it, talk about it
And the cares of this
Talk about it, talk about it
You can count on me
Talk about it, talk about it
I'll be there, don't cry.....

Without a single love one can be found
Talk about it, talk about it

And the cares of this life has you down
Talk about it, talk about it
You can count on me to be your friend
Talk about it, talk about it
I'll be there, don't cry
In the end you're gonna win

Without a single love one can be found
Talk about it, talk about it
And the cares of this life has you down
Talk about it, talk about it
You can count on me to be your friend
Talk about it, talk about it
I'll be there, don't cry
In the end you're gonna win
