Wild Ones

Beccy Cole

Don't you dare for her to dance on the bar
She's been known to go a little too far
Fiery red hair, the devils smile
A little tattoo that says "love a while"

CH: She loves the wild ones with the motorbike
She loves the wild ones she can party all night
She loves the wild ones the men in black
They're the wild bores and she loves you like that

She's not the kind of girl to settle down

She wrote the book on how to paint this town
If you ask her about her ideal man
She'll point her finger at the whole damn gang

CH

She was born to the Reverend Jones
He begged his little girl to stay at home
She said "Daddy I love you but don't you see
This is no place for a girl like me"
