

Chemical

Beck

You say your love is a chemical
Anodyne to the soul
What I really really want to know
Is if a mind's in control

I'm so high
And love is a chemical
I'm so high
And love is a chemical
Start it
Start it again

A random thought, a memory
A tidal wave, a melody, I'm on my knees
A sudden change in everything
Don't know what I would even feel when I'm free
You find love just a fantasy
Beautiful and ugly as a life could be
And I don't lose any sleep honestly

I'm so high
And love is a chemical
I'm so high
And love is a chemical
Start it
Start it again

I can feel it minute by minute by day
I don't want it running all night this way
Why you got to get it on my mind this way?

Saying what I feel
What can I tell you? Don't know
Why you have to be like that?
Alligator teardrops fall
Love is a... love is a chemical
Loving wears off like a chemical
I don't need anyone to turn me on
I don't need anyone, no

And when the feeling is over
There's no explanation
Shock to the system
Infatuation
Shake like a flower
Strange revelation
Cruel love illusion
Start it
Start it again

I'm so high
Saying what I feel
What can I tell you? Don't know
Why you have to be like that?
(And love is a chemical)
I'm so high

(And love is a chemical)
I don't need anyone to turn me on
