

No Limit

Beckah Shae

So, there's always gonna be critics out there
They'll never go nowhere, as long as you care
So you gotta understand
There's gonna always be a man, tellin you that you can't
So if you never spread your wings, you can't youch the sky
And you'll always wonder why... because you never tried
So are you really gonna let someone else decide
Who you are and how far you were created to fly?

You are so wonderful and fearfully made!
Albe to do ALL things great!
Oh, you better know your maker
Cause He's got a plan a purpose for you
And there's no limit to, what together
You can do!

So you might even notice, there's not a single one
Who agrees the things you've seen in visions can be done
So you gotta realize
That the truth that makes you wise, also makes you Faith rise!
Cause you just might be the one to listen and obey
Despite the doubt and all the uncertainty
Significance is not built on what meets the eye
It's who you are and how far you were created to fly!

You are so wonderful and fearfully made!
Albe to do ALL things great!
Oh, you better know your maker
Cause He's got a plan a purpose for you
And there's no limit to, what together
You can do!

There will always be haters like commentators who get carried away
There will always be somebody who got something to say
But don't fret or be discouraged when your plans are cut
Cause Jesus said He opens doors that no man can shut
And it don't matter 'bout your status or mistakes you made in your past
If God is for you He got your back like a coat tag
Trust me, you can note that, in Him there is no lack
You can drick from His fount in Zion's Mountain With no cash
Man, ya life is on smash, but you're in ya room
With a box of tissues, wiping sniffles, wishing for Ya tomb
But the sky is the limit God knew you in the womb
You got ya eye on the clouds, and He's trying to give you the moon
So step back for a second and realize your purpose
Yea, people gonna talk but know God's will is perfect
Beckah Shae is here to tell you when you're trying to cross an obstacle
Know that God is with you, and He'll make all possible

You are so wonderful and fearfully made!
Albe to do ALL things great!
Oh, you better know your maker
Cause He's got a plan a purpose for you
And there's no limit to, what together
You can do!

You are so wonderful and fearfully made!

Albe to do ALL things great!
Oh, you better know your maker
Cause He's got a plan a purpose for you
And there's no limit to, what together
You can do!
