

See Ya Soon

Beckah Shae

Don't matter whether, I've ever seen your face before
Cause I am so sure,
I'm looking forward to so much more
Then whatever I've imagined,
Cause my expectations they always fall short
And I don't need to know it all right now,
I'm fine with waiting, but just hurry up and come now!
I don't believe there's another
Better way I could love ya
Then put all my faith in who you are You've got all my mind, you've got all my heart
See you soon (doo bee doo)
I've got your promise deep in the pocket of my soul (doo bee doo bee doo)
So I'll see ya soon (doo bee doo)
I'm positive you're coming for me, and I'm so ready to go
I'll keep on looking for you,
Cause I know I'm gonna see you soon
Although it may rain, like tears from my eyes flow
I'm always hopeful,
The Son will shine forth, and bring that rainbow
Cause I know whatever happens,
There's nothing lasting, except for your truth
So I don't need to understand right now,
I'm fine with trusting, but just hurry up and come now!
It could be in the mornin'
It could be in the noon
It could be in the evenin'
Ya I don't know but you're comin' soon
Nobody knows the hour
Nobody knows the day
You're coming with your power
I know you're on your way
Nobody knows the hour
Nobody knows the day
And I'ma be ready
