

Success

Beckah Shae

So you're a superstar, a celebrity, a big name
So you think you're somebody now, and you got it All figured out
Ritzy, swankiness and all that flair
You gotta style that'll knock 'em out
You got followers everywhere, and admirers just tryin
To figure it out
So you're something, someone, you've made it now Achieved all you've dreamed, what's left now?
But what if your aim was to attain more than you could gain in this world?
And what if your heart chose to just trust, the One who made ev erything in this world?
What does success really mean?
Doesn't really have much to do with me
It's my will, conformed to your will, full of joy, peace and pr osperity
What does success really mean doesn't really have much to do wi th me
Faithfulness, and contentment is all I need
You are my success
Oh just another one of those days, just like the last, they all seem the same

Feels like routine has got you bound and ambition just can't be found
Oh, and the harder you work you wonder why, your only just gett ing by Seeming like you just can't please no one, no matter how much y ou try
So you're no one, no where, unrecognized
So you keep to yourself, this is your life
But what if your aim was to attain more than you could gain in this world?
And what if your heart chose to just trust the One who made eve rything in this world?
So you better think, whose example do you wanna follow?
Where and what are your goals?
Where and who are your heroes?
So you better know, your not promised another tomorrow
So take a look through God's eyes Your success is measured by His grace and your faith so...
