Fall

Becky Hill

I don't know how to be
Cause you were something so profound
Now you're holding back the seas
It's killing me inside
To know what we have has changed
And the many tears I cry
Are now lost in the rain

So I'll fall, in the heat of the moment
I'm just gonna fall, fall, fall into your arms
That's why I call, but I feel like you're broken
Fall, fall, fall straight out of harm

Baby, you're so close, but out of reach
I try to stay away, find the words to speak
But I'll fall, in the heat of the moment
Fall, fall, fall into your arms

So I'll fall, in the heat of the moment
I'm just gonna fall, fall, fall into your arms
That's why I call, but I feel like you're broken
Fall, fall, fall straight out of harm

Baby, you're so close, but out of reach
I try to stay away, find the words to speak
But I'll fall, in the heat of the moment
Fall, fall, fall into your arms
