Becky Hill

I been thinking
I been drinking
Anything that might anesthetize the feeling
I ain't joking
I think I'm broken
Something triggers me at any given moment

Wasn't my plan
But it's the truth
And it ain't a phase that I'm going through
All that I am
All that I do
Always seems to be revolving 'round you

'Cause I could be alone or in the club
Or someone else's bed
All I gotta do is think of us
And I get these side effects
Feeling like the more I'm moving on
The more I can't forget
Every time
I get these side effects

Every time
I get these side effects

People talking
And I've been dodging
Every question about you is so exhausting
I still got your number
Sometimes I wonder
Where you are tonight, whose body you are under?

Wasn't my plan
(Wasn't my plan)
But it's the truth
(But it's the truth)
No, it ain't a phase that I'm going through (No)
It's all that I am
It's all that I do
(All that I do)
Always seems to be revolving 'round you

'Cause I could be alone or in the club
Or someone else's bed
All I gotta do is think of us
And I get these side effects
Feeling like the more I'm moving on
The more I can't forget
Every time
Oh, I get these side effects

Oh, I
Every time (Oh)

'Cause I could be alone or in the club
Or someone else's bed

All I gotta do is think of us
And I get these side effects
Feeling like the more I'm moving on
The more I can't forget
Every time
I get these side effects
