

Pocket Rocket

Beddy Rays

Take it and keep it or leave it alone
You say that you mean it, I'm thinking that maybe you
Don't need a reason to throw any stones
A dog off the leash and in need of some meat off the bone

Where are my keys and my phone?

You do what you wanna
Do what you want, do what you want
Do what you do what you wanna
Do what you want, do what you want
Do what I, do what I wanna
Do what I want, do what I want
Do what I, do what I wanna
Do what I want, do what I want
Do what I do wanna do

You smoke what you drink and you drink what you smoke
You ripped off my head and you shit down my throat
And when push comes to shove, you put yourself above
You dig yourself deeper and fit like a glove, oh, I know

Where are my keys and my phone?

You do what you wanna
Do what you want, do what you want
Do what you do what you wanna
Do what you want, do what you want
Do what I, do what I wanna
Do what I want, do what I want
Do what I, do what I wanna
Do what I want, do what I want
Do what I do wanna do

Do what I do wanna do
Do what I do wanna do
Do what I do wanna do
Do what I do wanna do
