

Gold!

Bedroom

I'm out of the way
Too close
To falling
Pacing

I can't say
Your fault
My fault
Now

Anyone can go
Dreaming of me
From the past life
Now

And everything is gold (Gold!)
In your eyes
I can sleep
For a day

With no eyes
I could see
I could see
Gold

He's falling short
He's not sure
He'll make it out
He doesn't care

If he could stay
He'd be okay
He wouldn't doubt
Why he was there

And I watch him fumble
Watch him stumble again
And I wait for him to
Say he'll find his end

He keeps you close
You couldn't know
He let you down
And came around

If you could stay
You'd be okay
You wouldn't know
If you were in love

But you will watch him stumble
Watch him fumble again

That's enough
Put it down
Someone used
All around

In a world
Where I'm not found
In a life
I'm not allowed
If you could be Anything
Would you be gold
Over me?
It isn't wrong
It isn't bad
To go ahead
And exit now

(Gold!)

Get out of my way
I'm close
To falling
To pacing

So you say
It's our fault
It's time's fault
Now

And everyone can see
I'm dreaming of you
From the next life
Now

I'll see you if we're gold (Gold!)
With your eyes
I could breathe
For a day

With all eyes
We won't be
And we won't see
Gold
