

Close Another Door

Bee Gees

Many years have passed, it seems
And now I am all alone
I've sent the children far away
To some obscure unknown

It's so sad, so sad

Close another door
Listen to my eyes
Close another door
You're much too old to work
So won't you run away?

When I was young, I used to say
That age won't bother me
The life I had was very sad
It all went out to see

So so sad, so sad

Close another door
Listen to my eyes
Close another door
You're much too old to work
So won't you run away?

And though the sun is in outside
The rain is in my hair
Now all my life is mystified
My home is there in my chair

So so sad, so sad

Close another door
Listen to my eyes
Close another door
You're much too old to work
So won't you run away?

Let me go, send me flowers
And put me on a plane
I've paid before
So I've been told at least I'm alive

Fly me young, fly
And get me up
I been working so, so very hard
