

Every Second, Every Minute

Bee Gees

Send out your invitations, there's gonna be a party goin' on
We'll meet you at the station, you know the race has just begun
If you don't know that I was born to hold you
Then I'm gonna tell ya loud and clear, 'Baby, I love ya'
Every second, every minute, every hour, every day of every year

Now, we're gonna climb a mountain, no one is gonna stop me now
My love is like a fountain, I'll take your hand and show you how

If you don't think that I was born to hold you
Then I'm gonna shout it loud and clear, 'Baby, I love ya'
Every second, every minute, every hour, every day of every year

We'll meet you at the station, you know the race has just begun
If you don't know that I was born to hold you
