

Reanimate

Before I Turn

I feel your energy
Even though it's too late
They say that everyone bleeds
And it's just my anxiety
If you're just falling asleep
I hope you're lost in a dream
Of the day that I'm finally
Holding you

Lost soul?
I steel feel you around me
Lost soul?
How can you be when you surround me?
A fragile being
But we feel you fight
I promise next time I'll be
What you needed for life
Far from my reach

Far from my reach
There's a ghost inside me
Grasp onto me
I can feel you fighting

I hear no silence
So is this a goodbye?
They say that it's the end
But I feel you clinging to life

Out of body but forever in mind
I'll never stop believing of your soul entwined in mine
Forever grateful for the hope that you've shown
In body or spirit I'll always call you my own

Far from my reach
There's a ghost inside me
Grasp onto me
I can feel you fighting
I feel you breathe
As the life inside me
For now I wait
Til you reanimate someday
