

Destroyer

Before the Dawn

Devoid of air
Serene
Sound doesn't travel in the void

Absence of fear
Buried
Into the abyss, fragilities destroyed

In a blink of an eye
The chaos is restored
In a beat of a heart
The gale returns and wind begins to roar

Strength of a hurricane unleashed
Wrath of the Mother Earth released

Grandeur of the storm
Air moves unbounded with power
Grandeur of the form
How the air transforms
Dead still
Into the destroyer

The sky is growing darker
The clouds begin to swarm
Earth is bracing to reform

The rain begins to pour
As the thunder charges towards
The waves are rising on the shore
As the winds continue to reinforce

Grandeur of the storm
Air moves unbounded with power
Grandeur of the form
How the air transforms
Dead still
Into the destroyer
