

Shock Wave

Before the Dawn

One step behind
A blind leading a blind
Like a beast of prey
Vultures of the fall
In the shadows prowl
Don't you dare to walk away
I won't go down in silence
Ignorance is bliss
Indifference is abyss

Like a nail in your eye
Distortion in your ear
Finally see and hear me

No more disregarded
No more ignored
Epicentre of attention, imposed recognition
It goes both ways
Explosion within
Shock wave outwards
Killswitch detonator built-in

Conquer and divide
Open assault and blindside
All walls to collide
All walls torn asunder

Witness me and my scars

Not a trophy or a prize
We all born worthy
Full respect is deserved
And not rewarded
The end of the line
The final outcome
Submit forcibly to acknowledge me

Conquer and divide
Open assault and blindside
All walls to collide
All walls torn asunder

Conquer and divide
Open assault and blindside
All walls to collide
All walls torn asunder

Nail in your eye!
