

Stellar Effect

Before the Dawn

Behold the endless ocean
Wait for the time to accede
The ascending waters
Below the surface calm
The forces beyond
Will alter the borders

The barriers between
Dry land and the sea
Buried beneath
Shore transformed
Into an ocean floor
Buried beneath, concealed underneath

Dark universe
Force grandeur deviser of the worlds
Dark universe
Tears asunder destroyer of the worlds

The fabric of the nature
Weaved by the powers
Of the universe unending
The wholeness of existence
Construct without a design
Built by chaos

Dark universe
Force grandeur deviser of the worlds
Dark universe
Tears asunder destroyer of the worlds

Full of stars
Cold fires from afar
Dying stars
Cold fires from afar
Light travels northwards
