

The Final Storm

Before the Dawn

Last leaves have fallen
Soil has turned cold
Wind whispers warnings of the final storm
End of days devouring all the light
Chaos engine burns inside
Sorrow chose this hour
Sadness set this time
Only darkness walks beside me now

The day I disappear
My darkness brings dawn of the dying sun
Deadsong of the unbreakable
Pitch black universe echoes the last song

Be still, don't even breathe
And death won't find you here
4:19 a.m. - I'm still awake
Hiding inside where there is no light

The day I disappear
My darkness brings dawn of the dying sun
Deadsong of the unbreakable
Pitch black universe echoes the last song
The day I disappear
My darkness brings dawn of the dying sun
Deadsong of the unbreakable
Pitch black universe echoes the last song
