

Homesick

Before You Exit

I see my dreams outside the door
Sir, would you love I will support, ah
I pack my things for moving on-on, eh
Twenty years we were here and a week we're gone, oh
Look at these walls, they're so high, oh
I wish they would fall, I see color
But I'm losing it all, oh
With everything I'm dreaming of

I'm either sick of being home or I'm homesick, living
Sick of being home or I'm homesick
Either sick of being home or I'm homesick, living
Sick of being home, sick of being home, homesick

Homesick
(Sick of being home, being homesick)
(Sick of being home, being, being)

When I rest, don't take the pain away
When I see your face, you're miles away
In a brand new place, can't find my place (Can't find my place)
Oh-oh
Look at this day, look at everybody
Keeping their paints
I see flowers, but they're losing their shape
Far from everyone I'm dreaming of, oh

I'm either sick of being home or I'm homesick, living
Sick of being home or I'm homesick
Either sick of being home or I'm homesick, living
Sick of being home, sick of being home, homesick

Homesick (Ooh)
(Sick of being home, being homesick)
(Sick of being home)
(Sick of being home and I'm homesick)
(Sick of being home and I'm homesick)
(Sick of being home and I'm homesick)
(Sick of being home, sick of being home, homesick)
