

My Stigmas Bleeding Black

Behexen

Ave, salus infirmorum, miserere nobis!

The wounds of the suffering are open
My stigmas bleeding black Wounds from the five blades, of the inverted star

The Devils black vomit flowing from the wounds
The hammer of Satan has struck me by its brute strength

Master! Guide my hands to your deeds terrifying cruelties for I am your spear and I am your born

The sacred light of Lucifer Burns my skin in blisters Boil my flesh in your hatred
Let your spirit live free in me

Black and stabbing chains from the pentagram to my limbs through the wounds of devotion towards the evil destiny
