Sister Bessie don't you say no prayer for me A slow boats gonna lead me where I'm bound I'm for to travel far across the distant seas My destiny will lead me where I'm bound

Uh, feel like nobody ever pray for her No body did, nobody ever made a way for her And in the future she just couldn't see no change for her She felt her own best friend was a skateboard That's what she gave for Uh, young soul living in her own world Could be you sister, Mother, daughter, home girl She hate her Pops cause he cheated on her old girl Now she get high to ease the pain call it done girl I know it seem like life's too hard But just remember young soul, you done made it this far And I'mma tell you little something OGs would day Everyday ain't good, but something good in everyday So go girl, I'm praying for you Remember this deep inside somebody love you If you're going through hell, run don't be scared Might make it out before the devil know you was there Somebody pray for her

Sister Bessie don't you say no prayer for me A slow boats gonna lead me where I'm bound I'm for to travel far across the distant seas My destiny will lead me where I'm bound

Felt like nobody ever pray for him Nobody there, nobody ever made a way for him See Lil Tommy, he ain't lil no more, just turned 34 Still sleeping on the mattress on his Grandma's floor Can't keep a steady girlfriend let alone a job His Honda window broke from the time he got robbed, broke Ironic it seems, he was such a young soul He had such big dreams Now he sits in the basement, playing his guitar Cause his ex girlfriend said he ain't no star Can't wait to see her face when his career go far And his song is on every time she get in the car, yes Those type of dreams keep him going Those type of dreams keep him writing, keep him flowing Society says hes a waste, what a loser But he don't really care, all he needs is his music So Tommy pops in a USD He wanna feel like a G he just listen to me Wanna feel like a pimp he just listen to C And when he wanna feel street he just listen to Meek, yeah Go homie, somebody praying for you Remember this deep inside somebody love you If you're going through hell, run don't be scared Might make it out before the devil know you was there Somebody pray for him

Sister Bessie don't you say no prayer for me A slow boats gonna lead me where I'm bound I'm for to travel far across the distant seas
My destiny will lead me where I'm bound