Beirut

At least sit up
Let me fill your cup
Been waiting for
What's left to come unstuck

You're empty, you are full
Who knew it could be so?
You're empty, you are full
Who knows what we're in for?

What moves in the dark?
Who were we to start?
The room is so old
I've been here before

I'm empty, I am full
Who knows what we're here for?
I'm empty, I am full
Who knows what we're here for?
