

For the truth you must fight

Bek Ofis

Look up tell my why all of us always Cry too late
the date after the day when we could' ve stop the wave
What a play to play

Harmony fades away
Shaked and overturned
Over any over
That keeps me awake

For the truth you must fight
There' ll be many on your side
For the truth you must fight
East or west, left or right Things are not as they might truth' s not only black and white

Show me the way
I' ll follow every single day
So let me sell my soul
I' ll get a new one right away
Dont' t ever leave me here
I' ll never listen to what they say lefe' s just a moment

We have just one opportunity to climb off the sky
There are too many things
That make us wondering why
Under the sun every drop Lives the same short time to reveal the secret to answer why

Harmony fades away
Shaked and overturned
Over any over
That keeps me awake
