

Bags Packed

BEKA

Eyes closed, so I can see you clearly
Held tight, from the love you throw around me
Oh, I think we have it all, right here

I don't wanna waste my time
Worrying things won't go right
'Cause I can take this moment now
With you

I'll just say it, say it
I'll just feel it
I'll keep running into the fire if
It gets your heart healing
I don't wanna lose anymore
I'll say it, I'll just feel it
I'll keep running into the fire if
It gets your heart healing
'Cause I don't wanna lose anymore

Seatbelt on, but we're not even flying yet
I need oxygen, before the wind goes out my sails
What if I'm not enough? I'm not prepared enough
What if it turns out that I couldn't give you all the answers y ou said you're searching for?
Oh, bags packed

Oh, spending all my time
Worrying things won't go right
But I should take this moment now
With you

I'll just say it, say it
I'll just feel it
I'll keep running into the fire if
It gets your heart healing
I don't wanna lose anymore
I'll say it, I'll just feel it
I'll keep running into the fire if
It gets your heart healing
'Cause I don't wanna lose anymore

'Cause I don't wanna lose anymore
Oh no no, I don't wanna lose anymore
No no no no, 'cause I don't wanna lose anymore
No no no, I don't wanna lose anymore
