

Tears

BEKA

I'm spilling over
Pain all over the floor
I tried to wash it out
Got so tired I couldn't do it no more

Oh, wow, isn't it funny how
Blending into the crowd
Kinda gave me a bad reaction
See, now I'm down on my knees, crying out
I can finally feel, oh

I hope my tears don't dry up
I hope my tears don't dry up
I won't regret every little tear
'Cause I'm not done yet
I hope my tears don't dry up
I hope my tears don't dry up
I won't regret every little tear
'Cause I'm not done yet
I won't regret every little tear
'Cause I'm not done yet

Slipping in and out
Heart's feeling heavy again
It makes me wanna shout
No, I'm not gonna bottle it in, oh

Oh, wow, isn't it funny how
Blending into the crowd
Kinda gave me a bad reaction
See, now I'm down on my knees, crying out
I can finally breathe, oh

I hope my tears don't dry up
I hope my tears don't dry up
I won't regret every little tear
'Cause I'm not done yet
I hope my tears don't dry up
I hope my tears don't dry up
I won't regret every little tear
'Cause I'm not done yet (Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
I won't regret every little tear
'Cause I'm not done yet

No, I'm not gonna fake anymore
No, I won't wear a mask anymore
Even if I'm a mess on the floor
I've been here before and I survived it
No, I'm not gonna fake anymore
No, I won't wear a mask anymore
Even if I'm a mess on the floor
I've been here before and I survived it

I hope my tears don't dry up
I hope my tears don't dry up
I won't regret every little tear
'Cause I'm not done yet

You'll never see me again
You'll never see me regret, oh
I won't regret (I won't, I won't) every little tear
'Cause I'm not done yet

Every little tear
Says I'm not done yet
