

Forgot You

Bella Ferraro

I don't belong to you
I don't believe that I should compromise who I am for you
You keep me on a line, you only reel me in
When you feel I'm worth your precious time

Next time I say goodnight it will mean goodbye
I'll take no souvenirs, but only these words for you, dear

Take what you got, take it all, take the lie
'Cause I'm better off now that I FORGOT YOU

I guess it took a while to figure out the way
I gave in, you always took mine
I swallowed all your lies
Tried to convince myself that you had really changed for good this time

Next time I say goodnight it will mean goodbye
I'll take no souvenirs, but only these words for you, dear

Take what you got, take it all, take the lie
'Cause I'm better off now that I forgot you
And I'll be the best through the chill I'll never have
And I'm better off now that I FORGOT YOU

And after all this time I'm sorry that it didn't work out
But I'm fine and I refuse to take the blame
I'm the fool, I fell hard for your game
And you can tell yourself that the stars were aligned
But you figured it out but until that time

And now I'm wondering is this how it is
'Cause if we can't be lovers I don't wanna be friends
Where we be never worked for me
Heard these hurtful things, made it hard to believe
And I wanna leave but I can't move
My head says "go" but my heart needs you
Can we work this? Is it worth it?
Bella, love ain't love if it's perfect, you know

Take what you got, take it all, take the lie
'Cause I'm better off now that I forgot you
And I'll be the best through the chill I'll never have
And I'm better off now that I FORGOT YOU

Don't forget me, baby
I FORGOT YOU
Don't forget me, baby
I FORGOT YOU
Don't forget me, baby
I FORGOT YOU

Can we work this? Is it worth it?
Bella, love ain't love if it's perfect

Hey, I forgot, I forgot you
