

Summer Day

Bella Ferraro

Oh, summer day, where have you gone?
I miss the way you felt so long
And it's been months since you've come
What can I say? I can't let go
(Oh, summer day)

Now that we're strangers again
I would do it all the same
Just to see your face
Just to say your name
(Oh, summer day)

Now that we know where it ends
I would go back to the start
Just to hold your hand
Just to have your heart
(Oh, summer day)

Where have you been?
I wanna know all the things you've seen
'Cause it's been months since you've gone
What do you say? I can't move on
Can't let go
(Where have you gone?)
Can't move on
(Where have you gone?)
Can't let go
(Where have you gone?)
I can't move on
(Oh, summer day)

Now that we're strangers again
I would do it all the same
Just to see your face
Just to say your name
(Oh, summer day)

Now that we know where it ends
I would go back to the start
Just to hold your hand
Just to have your heart
(Oh, summer day)

Now that we're strangers again
I would do it all the same
Just to see us crash
Just to burn in flame
(Oh, summer day)

Now that we know where it ends
I would go back to the start
Just to feel us break
Just to fall apart
(Oh, summer day)
Just to see your face
(Oh, summer day)
(Where have you gone?)

Just to say your name
(Oh, summer day)
