

Sanity

Bella Shmurda

Sanity, mm-uh
Everything we chase is vanity
My mind needs more clarity
For the wars I won
I'm proud of me oh
I'm proud of me

For my sanity
I'll be fighting for this like me
My mind needs more clarity
For the wars I won
I'm proud of me oh
I'm proud of me

Walking on broken bottles
Fighting unseen battles
More problem plenty trouble
I need this sanity
Reality done certain
I'm back to life before certain
Happy and sad uncertain
For my family

Things that I lost
Nobody knows
'Cause my heart and soul overload
I'm on the road
Chasing the dough
Praying for more life, me and my bros
You're my joy, by me joy
Understand this feeling
I'm alone

Was in deep shit when I lost my son
And many things man no go fit to talk

Say
I need my sanity, yeah
Everything we chase is vanity
Everything we chase is vanity
My mind needs more clarity
I swear I need more clarity
For the wars I won
I'm proud of me oh
I'm proud of me
(For the that I love)

For my sanity
I've been fighting for this like me
My mind needs more clarity
For the wars I won
I'm proud of me oh
I'm proud of me

I'm chasing my money, oga ade
You got it I'm stalling, oh, ah, yeah
What I do, come on, come on, yeah

My mommy bless you
Ah, yeah million-dollar dream
Shit my face
Who change the day
Find blessing, see I tell you See I came from north
See I ain't done something
Now blessing gone be my way
Many times I have fallen
Every time I was searching for love
I was searching for God I trust in what I believe in

Yeah I need my sanity
Yeah everything we chase
Everything we chase is vanity
My mind needs more clarity
I swear, I need more clarity
For the wars I won, I'm proud of me (For the that I love)
Oh, I'm proud of me (For the that I love)

For my sanity
I'll be fighting for this like me
My mind needs more clarity
For the wars I won, I'm proud of me
Oh, I'm proud of me
